

International Conference Languages, discourses and practices beyond the vote: New perspectives on politicisation in the nineteenth century 13–14 January 2021

Programme

Wednesday 13 January 2021

9.30 Inauguration

9.40 First Session – Public spaces

Theo Jung (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg), 'Plebiscites on the Streets: The Politics of Public Acclamation in Early Nineteenth-Century Europe'

Emmanuel Fureix (Université Paris-Est Créteil), 'Visual History and Popular Politicization in the 19th Century: Approaches and Proposals (France, 1814-1871)'

11.00 Coffee break

11.15 Second Session – Mass Politics? Associations and campaigns

Maartje Janse (Leiden University), 'Voluntary associations and political participation'

Diego Palacios Cerezales (Universidad Complutense de Madrid), 'Comparative cultures of mobilisation. Transnational Catholic campaigns in the 19th century'

12.35 Lunch break

15.00 Third Session – Representation and citizenship

Henry Miller (Durham University), 'Petitioning and representation'

Florencia Peyrou (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid), 'Women, politics and politicization in Spain (1808-1874)'

Volker Köhler (TU Darmstadt), 'A Republican Intermezzo? Changing Perceptions of State and Citizenship in the city of Mainz, 1793-1814'

Thursday 14 January 2021

9.30 Fourth Session – Popular mobilisation

Álvaro París Martín (Université Toulouse-Jean Jaurès), 'Popular Royalism in the Marketplace: Women, Work and Everyday Politics in Marseille and Madrid (1814-1830)'

Jordi Roca Vernet (Universitat de Barcelona), 'Popular mobilization through the National Militia. Cities and liberal revolution'

10.50 Coffee break

11.00 Fifth Session – Participation in elections beyond the vote

Malcolm Crook (Keele University), 'Hoarse throats and sore heads: popular participation in elections before democracy'

Oriol Luján (Universidad Complutense de Madrid), 'Political citizens, thanks to or despite the law? The empowered voice of subjects in electoral claims'

12.20 Conclusions

Organisers:

Oriol Luján
Diego Palacios Cerezales

Grupo de Investigación Política y Sociedad en la Europa del siglo XIX
(UCM – 940783)
Departamento de Historia, Teorías y Geografía Políticas
Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y Sociología
Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y
Sociología

Contact: conferencebeyondthevote@gmail.com

Website: <https://19cp.hypotheses.org/>